WESTMINSTER, JUNE 9.

An act for granting to his Majeſty a certain ſum of money out of the ſinking fund, and for applying certain monies therein mentioned, for the ſervice of the year 1772, &c. and for making forth duplicates of Exchequer bills, lottery tickets, certificates, receipts, annuity orders, and other orders loſt, burnt, or deſtroyed.

An act for rendering the payment of the creditors of inſolvent debtors more equal and expeditious, &c. in Scotland.

An act for the better regulation of buildings and party-walls within the cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the liberties thereof, and other places in the weekly bills of mortality, &c.

And to two private bills.

After which his Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious SPEECH:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

CANNOT put an end to this Seſſion of Parliament, without expreſſing the ſatisfaction I have felt in obſerving the temper, and the prudence, which have governed all your deliberations during the courſe of it, and without returning you my particular thanks for the freſh proof you have given, of your affectionate attachment to me, in the additional ſecurity you have provided, for the welfare and honour of my family.

I can with great pleaſure acquaint you, that the diſpoſitions of the powers of Europe give me the ſtrongeſt reaſon to believe, that this nation will not be diſturbed in the enjoyment of the bleſſings of peace.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I thank you heartily for the ſupplies which you have granted with ſo much chearfulneſs and diſpatch, and for the ample proviſion you have made for every branch of the public ſervice: And I ſee with pleaſure and approbation, that you have at the ſame time been able, by a proper diſpoſition of the public money, to make a further progreſs in reducing the national debt.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I make no doubt but that you will carry into your reſpective counties the ſame principles, and the ſame zeal for the public good, which I have experienced from you in parliament; and that you will continue to exert your beſt endeavours to cultivate and improve a ſpirit of harmony and confidence amongſt all ranks of my faithful ſubjects: Let it be your conſtant care to convince them, that without a due reverence for the laws, and chearful obedience to juſt authority, neither their civil nor religious rights and liberties, can be enjoyed in comfort, or ſecurity; and to aſſure them that I conſider their intereſts as inſeparably connected with my own, and that I am, and have ever been perſuaded, that the proſperity, and glory, of my reign, muſt depend on my poſſeſſing the affection, and maintaining the happineſs, of my people.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Majeſty's command ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is his Majeſty's Royal will and pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 11th day of Auguſt next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 11th day of Auguſt next.

LONDON, JUNE 8.

THE agent who went from this country in purſuit of Lord Baltimore's natural daughter, lately carried off by her honourable guardian, was armed with an order from the French Ambaſſador, empowering him to demand aſſiſtance from the military of France, wherever he ſhould judge ſuch an aid neceſſary; and requiring all his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's ſubjects, as they ſhould anſwer at their peril, to give every poſſible expedition to his purſuit. When the agent therefore came to Liſle, where he found Mr. Secretary Morris had put up, he was inſtantly introduced, and had a guard as inſtantly placed upon the child ſtolen away, to prevent the guardian from recovering her.

Serjeant Glynn and Mr. Wilkes have received letters from Mr. Morris, complaining of the inſult he has met with in France, and requeſting of them to lay his caſe before the Secretary of State, that proper ſatisfaction may be demanded for the injury done to the Britiſh nation in the impriſonment of his perſon; which requeſt was accordingly complied with.

It is ſaid the Lord Chancellor will put a ſtop to a certain patriotic Secretary acting any more in the truſt bequeathed him by a late noble Lord.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, June 5.

"Yeſterday arrived at Spithead, the Niger man of war, Capt. Thompſon, from Madera, but laſt from Liſbon, with money for the Briſtol merchants. This morning Admiral Parry hoiſted the blue flag on board the Chatham man of war, at Spithead. He is appointed to the command at the Leeward Iſlands."

JUNE 9. Yeſterday about half after twelve o'clock, the evidence was cloſed before the Select Committee appointed to decide the Saltaſh election; when the Counſel, Serjeant Burland, on the part of the ſitting member, having ſpoke for near three quarters of an hour, was replied to by Mr. Manaſield, in behalf of the petitioners. It being now two o'clock, the room was cleared for the Committee to debate, and in leſs than two hours and an half, they made their report; by which Thomas Bradſhaw, Eſq; was declared duly elected.

Yeſterday the Houſe of Commons met at one o'clock, and ſat till a quarter after four, before a ſufficient number (which is 40) could be got to conſtitute a houſe, at which time, on the return of the Select Committee with the report, the Speaker took the chair, and Mr. Cornwall the chairman of that Committee being in his place, the Speaker put the queſtion, that the ſaid report be now received, which was agreed to, and Mr. Cornwall delivered it in at the table. The Clerk of the Houſe was then ordered to read it. It was to the following effect, "That Thomas Bradſhaw, Eſq; is duly elected a Burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent parliament for the Borough of Saltaſh, in the county of Cornwall." The Clerk of the Crown was then called in, in order to alter the return, by erazing the name of the ſitting member, and inſerting in his ſtead that of the petitioner.

Extract of a Letter from Dublin, June 2.

"On the 28th ult. the following Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons of this kingdom, was preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

"May it pleaſe your Excellency,

"WE, his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, think ourſelves indiſpenſibly obliged, before an end be put to this ſeſſion, to declare our entire ſatisfaction in your Excellency's juſt and prudent adminiſtration.

"WE are truly ſenſible of his Majeſty's paternal regard for the welfare of this kingdom, in continuing your Excellency ſo long reſident amongſt us; and being convinced from our own experience of your Excellency's integrity, and of your inclination to do every thing that may contribute to the intereſts and proſperity of this country, we have the moſt perfect confidence of being repreſented to his Majeſty, as a dutiful, loyal, and affectionate people."

The Elizabeth, Wolf, from Dublin, to North-Carolina, is foundered at ſea; the crew were taken up by the Mary, Jones, from the Bay of Honduras.

Captain Hoare, of the Britiſh King, met with the following extraordinary adventure: On his leaving China he came home by the new paſſage, and touched at the Phillippine Iſlands for wood and water, and when the men came to the watering place they luckily obſerved a ſerpent, or ſnake, very large and ſubtle, curled round a large branch of a tree, ready to dart upon its prey, with eyes fierce and fiery like two comets, and with the moſt dreadful appearance. The ſailors immediately fired their muſquets at the monſter, but without any effect, for the animal came from the tree to the ground purſuing its enemies, when an Iriſh ſailor ſwore if it was the Devil he would attack it, and accordingly with an ax gave it a deſperate wound in the belly. The ſnake then retreated into the water, but being pulled out with a large hook it was ſoon ſhot dead. The body was as large as a corpulent man's body, and its length eighteen feet. Natural hiſtorians relate of the above ſnake, that it darts upon any animal, whether ſheep or deer, twines itſelf round the body and breaks every bone, then covering the body with its ſaliva, ſwallows its prey. Captain Hoare has brought the ſkin home, which is now on board his ſhip at Woolwich.

On Tueſday laſt was held the anniverſary meeting of the Joiners Company at their Hall in Thames-ſtreet, when after an entertainment being given to the Court of Aſſiſtants, and about fourteen ladies, &c. the Rev. Dr. Wilſon, being Maſter of the Company, preſented them with a large ſilver cup and cover, with his arms neatly engraved thereon, and the arms of the Company, with the motto of "Join Loyalty with Liberty," to be uſed at all future meetings.

At the laſt meeting of the Supporters of the Bill of Rights, at the London Tavern, a very eminent attorney was expelled from that Society; and the reaſon of his expulſion entered in their books in words which we do not chuſe to repeat.

The ſame morning, about five o'clock, a fire broke out at Mr. Wilkinſon's, cabinet-maker, in St. Paul's Church-yard, which entirely conſumed the ſame, Mr. Ellemore's, and Mr. Bell's, and greatly damaged Mr. Hurlock's, Mr. Wilkes's, and Mr. Harris's, and likewiſe damaged ſeveral in Black Swan Court.

Alſo broke out the ſame morning, another fire in Foullans, near St. Thomas's hoſpital. It was occaſioned by a man and his wife going to bed drunk, and ſetting fire to the curtains. The man was burnt to death, and the woman ſo much burnt, that her life is deſpaired of.

On Wedneſday laſt Farmer Wilmott, of Tottenham, tried one of Moore's patent ploughs in the common field, called the Hyde, againſt one of Farmer Bellows's ploughs of Edmonton, before a great number of ſpectators; when Farmer Wilmott, with two horſes, plowed or broke up one acre, two roods, and 27 poles of fallow ground, ſix inches deep, in five hours; and Farmer Bellows, in the ſame time, with four horſes, broke up one acre, three roods, and 22 poles; ſo that Bellows's plough with four horſes, plowed exactly ſeven-eights of a rood of land more than Moore's did with two horſes.

Laſt night died, in the 112th year of his age, Mr. John Sheils, apothecary, in Wincheſter-ſtreet, Southwark.

We are aſſured, from the beſt authority, that there is not the leaſt foundation for the report of a marriage being likely to take place between the Duke of Devonſhire and Miſs Egerton.

JUNE 10. The Houſe of Peers was prodigiouſly crouded by the attendance of a great number of foreign nobility, now in this metropolis, who expreſſed a great ſatisfaction at the grand appearance of his Majeſty on the throne, ſurrounded by his Peers, all in their robes, declaring they never ſaw any thing to equal it in their lives.

JUNE 12. Letters from Copenhagen advife, that Count Holftein, late chief Steward to her Majefty, Queen Matilda, has been appointed chief marfhal of the court to his Majefty, the King. By this appointment it fhould feem, that the Count has been very inftrumental in bringing about the late revolution. Colonel Penz is appointed governor of the Caftle of Cronenbargh, in the room of Lieutenant General Van Hauch. What is remarkable in this appointment is, that the latter officer, after having refigned the above-mentioned important office of Governor of Cronenburgh Caftle, has had a penfion fettled on him for life, to the amount of 3000 dollars, but is to lead a private life.

Extract of a letter from Elfineur, May 27.

The ftatue is thought to have the ftrongeft likenefs of him. A green curtain hangs before it, which is to be taken away on Midfummer-day.

We are aflured, that when John Eyre, Efq; went firft on board the tranfport, he agreed to pay the Captain for his voyage very gentecily; but the Captain inlifting upon being firft paid, he fubmitted, inftead of being well accommodated, to fail with the reft of the convicts in the hold, in the midft of ftench and naftinefs; by which means he contracted a diftemper, which put a period to his life foon after he arrived at the deftined place of his landing.

Yefterday the houfe of Meffrs. Neale, James, Fordyce, and Down, bankers, in Threadneedle-ftreet, ftopped payment. The acting partner, it is faid, is gone off with a very large fum of money, and has entirely ftripped the houfe of the means of immediate payment. This failure has already broke two capital merchants, and is likely to involve many other families in ruin. The other partners report, that they hope foon to make good every demand upon the houfe.

This meeting, to the great honour of Prince Maffarano, was at the inftance of his Excellency.

The true reafon that Meffrs. Bankes and Solander do not go to the South Seas, is, the Court of Spain have ftrongly remonftrated againft our navigating in thofe feas, and our Court have meanly and cowardly given up the original defign. And to cover their own bafenefs in this matter, the fhip intended for Meffrs. Bankes, &c. was fitted out in fo bad a manner, the gentleman could not go in her. This pitiful trick was contrived to throw that blame upon them, which really belongs to the Miniftry.

We flatter ourfelves with the more fuccefs from this negociation, as the Grand Signior is determined to liften to any reafonable terms, being truly defirous to procure a peace in order to have his hands at liberty to take his revenge on Aly Bey, as well as fome Baffhaws of Syria who have revolted, and of the Georgians, who are conftantly at war with the Porte. Notwithftanding this, all perfons at Conftantinople are forbidden to talk of peace under very fevere penalties, which prohibition is fuppofed to have arifen from a defire of ftetting the Turkifh troops who come from Afia againft going to the army of the Grand Vizir, which, as foon as the peace is concluded, will be employed againft Aly Bey."

It is hoped that the truce which is foon expected to take place, will render thefe and all other warlike preparations ufelefs; and that the negociations at the congrefs will be followed by a peace."

We hear that the gentle Conway, who is in hourly expectation of refigning his Office at the Board of Ordnance, will be offered fome trifling employment, to fave the appearances of any refentment about his voting againft the marriage-bill; but then fo inadequate to his lofs of place, as, it is thought, even the fpirit of the Hertford family will refufe.

In the courfe of laft week the Dutch drew 170,000l. out of our funds.

No lefs than eight capital houfes have already been obliged to ftop payment on account of the late failure of Mr. Fordyce.

One Gentleman in particular, it is faid, had juft determined to retire from bufinefs with a fotune of 30,000l. but the event has proved that he had unfortunately built his caftle in the Air.

JUNE 19. At the Chapter of the moft noble Order of the Garter held yefterday at St. James's, when Lord North was inveffed with the enfigns of that Order, there were prefent the Prince of Wales, Bifhop of Ofnaburgh, Duke of Glouceiter, Duke of Newcaftle, Duke of Rutland, Duke of Montagu, Duke of Grafton, Lord Hertford, Lord Albemarle, and Lord Gower.

William Eden, Efq; of Lincoln's Inn, Barrifter, and Auditor of Greenwich-Hofpital, is appointed Under-Secretary of State, in the room of the late Thomas Whateley, Efq.

Authentic letters from Paris declare, that the Sieur Dionis, Member of the Academy at Bourdeaux, has lately invented a veffel to be rowed with eight oars under water, and that the perfons in the boat are prevented from fuffocation by means of a kind of æthetial liquor, which, when the vital air becomes unfit for refpiration, by the clofenefs of the confinement, it reftores it to its original falutary ftate, by diffipating the groffer exhalations, and throwing them, through a fpiral tube, into the water. An experiment was made on the 28th of laft month with this extraordinary machine, which, we are aflured, with ten perfons in it, was navigated four hours and a half under water in the Bay of Bifcay, during which time it proceeded five leagues without any of the parties receiving the leaft fupport from the common air.

The Spanifh and Danifh Ambaffadors have not received letters of recall, as has been mentioned in the papers.

JUNE 20. A letter from Zell fays, that when Sir Robert Murray Keith went to take his leave of Queen Carolina Matilda, fhe expreffed in the ftrongeft terms the great obligations fhe lay under to him; for fhe believed, that by his fteady and fpirited behaviour he faved her from fuffering a cruel and ignominious death, and begged that he would ftay with her a few days longer, till fhe could write fome letters to her royal brother and fifter. She alfo expreffed to Sir Robert her great defire to come to England.

The reafon of fending the red ribband to Sir George M'Cartney by poft, was to fave the expences of a meffenger, whofe ufual prefent from the new made Knight on this occafion is 100l. This adoption of œconomy, in favour of Sir George, was no doubt the advice of his father-in-law, the frugal Lord Bate.

The moment a late great failure in the city was known, a gentleman rode off expreffs to Edinburgh to the bankers there, and back again, which is near 850 miles, in fo fhort a time as 103 hours.

In confequence of that gentleman's return, the Bank of England on Wednefday advanced 400,000l. to the bankers there, who, for this timely fupply, muft have all become bankrupts.

A meffenger has been difpatched to his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, requefting his immediate prefence in town.

Yefterday a great houfe in Wood-ftreet ftopped payment.

A certain Dutch houfe, faid to be the firft in Europe, is this day reported to have ftopt payment.

The gentlemen who attended the Knights of the Bath on Monday laft as Efquires, are entitled to take that rank hereafter on every occafion; they are by it likewife authorifed to refufe ferving the office of Sheriff in any city or county in his Majefty's dominions.

JUNE 22. On Friday night Sir Robert Murray Keith, his Majefty's Miniffer at the Court of Copenhagen, arrived in town from that kingdom, laft from Stade; and on Saturday he waited on his Majefty at Kew, with whom he had a long conference.

The Imperial and Pruffian Ambaffadors have been recalled from the court of Verfailles.

Extract of a Letter from Cologne, June 12.

"Letters from Italy dated the 2d inft. advife, that an account has been received there from Mexico, that a violent earthquake had deftroyed the greateft part of the City of Manilla, the Capital of the Philippine Iflands; but that happily very few of the inhabitants loft their lives by this dreadful accident."

It is remarkable that the Firft Lord of the Treafury and the Lord Chancellor are both heirs apparent; a circumftance unequalled perhaps in the annals of our country.

It is faid that an abfolute ftop is put to the Adelphi buildings, and no lefs than 400 workmen difcharged.

JUNE 23. The diffidence occafioned by the prefent bankruptcies in the city of London, has thrown many families, lately in affluent circumftances, into inextricable misfortunes. The ruin now is become more general, and has extended itfelf to the inferior claffs. It is certain, that by the failure of fome capital houfes, in which the Meffrs. Adams of the Adelphi, are unfortunately involved, upwards of two thoufand valuable artificers and workmen, fupported by their fpirited undertakings in different parts of the kingdom, are thrown out of employment, and their families deprived of fubfiftence.

Yefterday morning the houfe of Sir Richard Glyn and Halifax ftopt payment, and a commiffion of bankruptcy is iffued out againft them, which, it is reported, has been hurried on to prevent an extent from the Crown taking place of the commiffion. The acceptance of Scotch bills, to a very large amount, is faid to have occafioned the diftrefs of this houfe.

Another great houfe, which was reported to be in a tottering condition, has received a timely fupply from the Bank of England, on the credit of two eminent Merchants, who very friendly and fenfibly confidered, that if men of the firft fortunes in the city were not fupported, the whole trade of the world muft be involved in the calamity. The merchants alfo are met this day on the fame fubject, and we may reafonably hope that the Bankers will in a few days again enjoy the confidence of the public, the want of which alone appears to have occafioned this fhocking diftrefs.

Monfieur Ernft, Secretary to the Britifh Ambaffy at Copenhagen, has the management of affairs there during the abfence of Sir Robert Murray Keith.

Yefterday the Court of King's Bench gave judgment in the cafe of Somerfet the negro, finding that Mr. Stuart, his maffer, had no power to compel him on board a fhip, or to fend him back to the plantations; but that the owner might bring an action of Trover againft any one who fhall take the Black into his fervice.

This day at noon a meeting of the merchants, &c. was held at the King's Arms tavern, Cornhill, to conſult on meafures, to fupport the Scotch bank of Douglas, Heron, & Co. (Mr. Long in the Chair) when a fubfcription was immediately agreed to and opened, in order to raife a fum of money to indemnify the Bank of England for difcounting the bills on that houfe.

Within thefe few days, a merchant in the city cut his throat while in bed at his country feat, and his wife lay afleep by him; when fhe awakened fhe found him dead, weltering in his blood. It is thought he committed this rafh action on account of fome late failures.

JUNE 24. It is faid that General Conway will be appointed Commander in Chief of his Majefty's forces in North-America, in the room of General Gage, who is to return to England.

Laft Wednefday was launched, at Newport, in the Ifle of Wight, his Majefty's fhip Le Terpfichore, John Norris, Efq; Commander.

JUNE 26. The inftructions, relative to the fhortening the duration of Parliaments, which were agreed to at Guildhall on Wednefday laft, are to be prefented by Mr. Alderman Crofby, (who was Chairman when they were moved for) to the City Repreſentatives. The thanks of the Livery were given to Mr. Crofby for taking the Chair, to Captain Allen for moving for the faid inftructions, and to Mr. Sawbridge for promifing to make the motion again in the Houfe of Commons.

JUNE 27. It is faid that part of Mr. Robinfon's view in going out with Major Rogers to America is, that he may have an opportunity of inſpecting fome very valuable mines, which he is well informed are at the head of the river Miffiffippi, and which, he thinks, may be worked with greater eafe and advantage than thofe in the neighbourhood of Mexico; that at the fame time the Major fhall be there engaged in exploring territory, the Miner may be employed in acquiring treafure to the Britifh empire.

JUNE 29. Mr. Sawbridge's zeal to unite the leaders of the popular party is univerſally applauded, and has been attended with the happieft effects.

There are now fitting out in different yards twenty-five fail of fhips for the Eaft-India Company's fervice.

The Boſton man of war, Captain Parker, from Virginia, is arrived at Portfmouth.

Sir William Stephenſon, Mr. Sawbridge, Mr. Oliver, Mr. Lewes, Mr. Wilkes, Mr. Bull, and many other gentlemen, friends to liberty, dined together in the utmoft harmony on Friday, at the Hatchet in Trinity-lane, in Queenhithe Ward.

The Lady of a late eminent Trader, will, it is faid, have proviſion aſſigned her on the Iriſh liſt, to which her beauty merit, and misfortunes, ſo juſtly intitle her.

June 30. Sunday evening his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Piedmont arrived at the houſe of the Sardinian Ambaſſador in Lincoln's-Inn fields, from France.

The Directors of the Bank have for ſeveral days together ſat till five o'clock in the evening, though the uſual time of their biſiness is at one in the afternoon, and cheerfully contributed their utmoſt aſſiſtance to the merchants, wherever they could extend it with juſtice to their proprietors.

At the cloſe of the poll for Sheriffs this day at three o'clock, the numbers ſtood as follow: For Mr. Oliver, 1459; for Mr. Lewes, 1200; for Mr. Plumbe, 739.

We are informed that the commiſſion of bankruptcy againſt Sir Richard Glynn and Thomas Hallifax, Eſq; will be ſhortly ſuperſeded.

Extract of a letter from an Engliſh Gentleman at Grand Cairo, in Egypt, to his friend in London, dated the 23d March.

"Aly Bey is returned from his conqueſts in Syria, and by his plundering Damaſcus, Macao, Aleppo, and Jeruſalem, &c. he has acquired an emence treaſure; add to this, he has ſo far inſinuated himſelf into the favour of his army, that I am perſuaded the Grand Signior will never more regain Egypt, ſo that he (Aly Bey) has actually coined a new ſilver coin, of which the legend is, "Aly Bey, Grand Sultan." You may remember when you was amongſt us, Egypt was a perfect garden, alas! now it is juſt the reverſe; inſtead of thoſe large tracts of land abounding with rice, which ſupplied all the Grand Signior's ſubjects throughout his extenſive empire, there is now nothing to be ſeen but heaps of ſand; ſo that this article is at a moſt exorbitant price, occaſioned by ſo many thouſands that uſed to cultivate the earth, now make the greateſt part of Aly Bey's army: And was it not for the Dutch who ſupplies us, doubtleſs we ſhould have a famine.

"It is ſomething extraordinary, that the ſtaple commodity of our Colonies ſhould be monopolized by the Dutch, and ſent to the beſt markets; and that the Planters and Merchants in South-Carolina and Georgia, ſhould ſuffer a foreign ſtate to enjoy ſo valuable a branch of their commerce."

St. James's, May 29. This day his Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the honour of the moſt Honourable Order of the Bath on the Right Honourable Sir George Macartney, Knt. Secretary to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

June 6. Yeſterday his Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the honour of Knighthood on Sir George Oſborn, Bart. Stanier Porten, and Thomas Mills, Eſqrs.

June 10. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer the honour of Knighthood on Captain Baſil Keith, Captain Peter Parker, and Horatio Mann, Eſq.

Edinburgh, June 15. The news of Meſſrs. Neale, Fordyce, James, and Down, having ſtopped payment, reached this place on Friday afternoon, it was brought by a gentleman who came down in 43 hours. We hear that the banks have agreed to ſupport ſuch houſes here as may need aſſiſtance, ſo that we hope there will be no bad conſequences from the great houſes in London having ſtopped. It is alſo ſaid, Meſſrs. Neyle, & Co. have aſſumed Alderman Sir Robert Ladbroke a partner in their houſe, in place of Mr. Fordyce, and are now going on again.
